Sending the Okadas

If the Okada's return will not be easy, why are they returning to Japan and why will we be supporting them in doing it?

We together have experienced God's love and in response to His love are seeking to live lives pleasing to Him rather than to ourselves (Ephesians 2:1-10; cf. 2 Corinthians 5:14-15).

We together believe that we have been commanded to make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:18-20).

We together believe that God is now in the process of opening a door of ministry to Japan through the Okadas, that is for us, unprecedented in its scope and its potential impact (1 Corinthians 16:9).

May God pour out His grace upon the Okadas as they return to continue their ministry in Japan, and may we by God's grace effectively and faithfully support them in their work.
